Refreshments will be provided for all!

- Parents are the most important influential people in their children's lives and must accompany their child to share this experience.
- A representative from the National Guard will facilitate an experiential learning adventure—promoting healthy lifestyles, communication, and at the same time learning about your child and yourself.
- There will be fun hands-on activities, as well as a craft and a snack.
- This event is sponsored by the Waxhaw Elementary Parent Corps and the National Guard's Drug Demand Reduction.

YES—My Child(ren) and I/We will attend.
